

Visitor Guidelines at LeShow. Moscow

Dear visitors,

Thank you for coming to LeShow. We would like to remind you that the following rules of conduct, designed to ensure your safety, security and comfort, should be observed at our premises.

1. Admission is by visitor badges. The badges are issued after registration to the event upon presentation of an invitation, personal e-ticket or ticket bought in one of Expocentre's ticket offices, and a printed copy of the visitor questionnaire.
2. On days when admission is restricted to professional visitors, the age limit is in place. The age restrictions can be found at the official website, registration desks, invitations, personal e-tickets and tickets bought in ticket offices of Expocentre Fairgrounds.
3. Children under the age of 14 must be accompanied by adults.
4. All visitors and their belongings are subject to security checks at the entrances to Expocentre Fairgrounds (Federal Laws of the Russian Federation No.35 from 06.03.2006 as amended on 08.11.2011, No.298 from 15.11.2010; Moscow City Law No.45 from 21.11.2007 as amended on 26.06.2013; Recommendations of the Expert Council under the Commission on Security of the Moscow City Duma "On Additional Measures on Provision of Security at Crowded Places" from 04.02.2011; Federal Law of the Russian Federation No.150 from 13.12.1996 on arms and weapons).
5. Fire evacuation maps are located at the entrances to all exhibition pavilions. Visitors should get familiar with evacuation routes in case of emergency.
6. In case of emergency at Expocentre Fairgrounds, visitors should follow instructions given by Expocentre personnel and security guards.
7. Unattended or suspicious items found at exhibition must be immediately reported to Expocentre personnel, security guards or information desk in exhibition halls.
9. It is prohibited to:
 - give exhibitor and visitors badges to third parties;
 - bring any types of fire arms, gas spray arms, and cold steel arms;
 - bring explosives, flammable materials, any type of pyrotechnics, toxic, poisonous, and caustic agents and substances;
 - bring and take alcoholic drinks, narcotic and psychotropic substances; be under the influence of alcohol or drugs or otherwise intoxicated;
 - bring pets/animals;
 - enter areas and premises closed to the general public; use restricted, service and personnel entrances and gates;

- cross traffic lanes outside pedestrian crossings inside the exhibition marked off by solid lines, as well as walk on traffic lanes;
- use bikes, scooters, roller blades, roller skates or other similar transport or sports devices;
- carry out actions, which can pose a risk to the property of Expocentre or exhibition organizers, risk to health, life and property of other people, or present a risk to public order and safety at exhibition territory;
- organize and carry out unpermitted public meetings, demonstrations, picketing, and other types of unauthorized promotional events and flashmobs;
- write, paint; place, paste up and distribute printed materials, posters, flyers and other information and promotional products; carry out propaganda;
- beg, litter;
- leave children unattended;
- deliver advertising materials related to any companies, not taking part in the current exhibition, as well as to perform promotional and advertising activities related to another exhibition event excluding the exhibitions of the organizer;
- have clothes, luggage, items, foodstuffs which can soil clothes of other people and exhibits;
- smoke both indoors and outdoors except at specially allocated places designated as Smoking Area with yellow lines (Federal Law of the Russian Federation No.15 from 23.02.2013 "On the Protection of Public Health About from Exposure to Environmental Tobacco Smoke and the Consequences of Tobacco Use");
- impede the performance of duties of Expocentre personnel and security guards, fail to follow their instructions to observe the present guidelines, keep public peace, and comply with access rules.

10. The following actions could result in being denied entry or asked to leave Expocentre Fairgrounds without a refund for the admission ticket:

refuse to undergo security search, including inspection of personal belongings;

be found under the influence of alcohol or drugs;

bring to the fairgrounds/be in possession of items prohibited at the fairgrounds;

carry out any actions which constitute a menace to the public order and safety; begging;

failure to adhere to the present guidelines and to comply with demands of officials according to the current legislation of the Russian Federation.

If necessary, violators could be reported to the law enforcement authorities.

11. At Expocentre Fairgrounds visitors can seek first-aid assistance;
receive information about events ran at Expocentre Fairgrounds;
inform the Expocentre personnel about shortcomings of the event.
Have a nice visit to Expocentre Fairgrounds!